Luigi Gratton, M.D., M.P.H.

Vice President, Medical Affairs and Education

As vice president, medical affairs and education, Luigi Gratton, M.D. will coordinate the strategic management and direction of Herbalife's Medical Advisory Board to ensure Distributors have a thorough understanding of products, ingredients and their benefits. In addition, he will manage the day to day operations of the medical affairs and education department assuring all Distributor and medical inquiries receive a quick and accurate response.

Gratton will work closely with Distributor trainers around the world to ensure the dissemination of accurate product information. He will also speak at major Herbalife events enhancing Distributor's knowledge about Herbalife products.

He has written numerous articles on nutrition and obesity, and appeared on television speaking on nutrition, anti-aging medicine, sports nutrition, and other medical topics.

Gratton earned an undergraduate degree in science and a masters in public health from University of California, Los Angeles. He was awarded a medical degree from Mount Sinai Medical School of New York University and fulfilled his residency in family medicine at Los Angeles County Hubert Humphrey Family Medicine Center. He completed a postdoctoral fellowship in clinical nutrition at the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA. In addition, Gratton has worked as a physician specialist in family medicine and as a clinical physician at the UCLA Center for Human Nutrition in the risk factor obesity program.

Gratton has been awarded Diplomate of The American Board of Family Practice and The American Board of Physician Nutrition.
